THE DIARIES OF MRS. LUCINDA CORNELL

1864

JANUARY, 1864

1 At Uncle Wm. S., it is colder than I ever before knew it to be, Sheldon Barbee & I called on Aunt Cindis, I dressed then he brought me in sled over to Abbie Burnetts where we spent a very pleasant day, slept with Pena Sheldon, staid night

2 At Abbie Burnetts, Sheldon went home to Henderson County near Shokokhan near Iowa, I assisted Abbie at her quilting, ironed some, sewed blue braid on my black dress, I think of home & old friends often, I wish to see them but more than all to see Paris

3 At George & Abbie Burnetts, they went to church, I staid with the girl & children, it is lonesome, I wrote a letter to Libbie King & one to Mrs. Herriness, not a soul came all day, Oh! I give so much to see Paris

4 At Burnetts, We washed, the weather is moderated some but is cold enough yet, I wrote & read some, am thinking of home & its endearments & wish I were there

5 At Burnetts, helped Abbie sew some, I have been dreaming & if there is anything dreams that is a bad one, I feel sad & sorrowful & lonely

6 At Abbie Burnetts, she, George & I got at 4, breakfasted, dressed & went to Canton on sled nearly 20 miles, Abbie got a looking glass $5½, lounge $5, other things amounting to $23, George got overcoat $12, I was examined got a certificate for 1 year, home dark, tired

7 At George Burnetts, mended clothes some, fixed little Marys doll head on & made Abbies lounge tick, it is sunshine but very cold yet, Uncle Wm. came in sled for me, I went his house & staid night

8 At Uncle W's, came to Aunt Cinda's, she & I went to Mags visiting took dinner had a pleasant time & returned at 4, Cass Quikness is teaching, haven't seen him yet, knitting on overshoes for Belle

9 At Aunt Cindas, finished Belles overshoes & began a pair for me. Uncle Wm. went to Fairview, brought me a letter from Paris & Sallie Barbee, I read with so much pleasure, Spent rather a pleasant evening

10 At Aunt Cindas, came over to Cousin Stantis with Uncle Wm. and Cousin Eliza in sleigh, it is quite cold, tho we had quite a pleasant ride the scenery being so novel & romantic, Uncle went home, I spent very pleasant

11 At Cousin Stantus Merrisses, He & I & His wife & three little girls went over to Abingdon to get pictures, they gave me the picture of the little girls, Stante got me & made me a present of a splendid picture? worth $1.50, sent a letter to Paris & Sallie

12 At Cousin Stanties, he helped kill two hogs, Mr. Perce a neighbor helping, I made the hocks of 3 dolls for the 3 little girls & cut out lining to worsted spencer & knit some, Stantie lives in Knox

13 At Cousin Stanties Merriss, he brought me on sled over to Cousin Thewels in Warren County, found them all well & doing well, & living in a right pretty place, I spent quite pleasant eve talking about the old neighbors to Polly, knit some on overshoes
